Verse for Christmas

Today in the town of David a savior has been born to you, He is Christ
the Lord.

Luke 2:11

Parent/Child Weekly Study

Isaac's family had a special tradition using the remembrance box. What special traditions do we have in our family?

What can we do to remember that it is Jesus' birthday?

What is Hope?

What is Joy?

What is Peace?

What is Love?

Christmas dinner was over and it was time for presents.

Isaac was very excited and sat down next to the tree in the living room.

One by one his family joined him to begin passing out presents, but first they would open the Remembrance Box.

“Super!” said Isaac’s mom reaching for the box.

She pulled out another piece of paper.

“Peace!” she said.

“Jesus gives me peace every day when I pray.”

Around and around the room they went talking about how Jesus gives Peace, Love, Joy, and Hope everyday, including Christmas day.

Isaac looked at the small purple box with anticipation.

Every year they would open the Remembrance Box to remind them of the real meaning of Christmas: that it is Jesus' birthday and Jesus loves us very much.

“Wonderful!” said Grandpa, “now it’s my turn.”

He reached into the box and pulled out a piece of paper.

“Hope!” he said.

“Jesus gives me hope through his words in the Bible!”

“You go first,” said Isaac’s mom with a smile.

Isaac reached for the box and opened the lid. He pulled out a slip of paper.

“Joy!” he announced.

“Jesus gives me Joy by...” he thought to himself, “by making each day special for me!”

“My turn!” said Isaac’s brother.

He reached into the box and pulled out another slip of paper: “Love!” he announced.

“Jesus shows me love everyday by giving me a family that I love.”
