A Room for You

Verse for Jesus Loves Me

“For God so loved the world that he gave His only son, that whosoever believes in Him shall have everlasting life.”

-John 3:16

“Let me tell you a Bible story,” said Grandpa while he tucked Taylor into bed.

“Yes, yes, I love Bible stories,” Taylor replied.

Parent/Child weekly study

What do you think God's house is like?

What do you think we will do there?

What is your favorite Bible story?

How do you think the disciples felt when Jesus was going away?

How do you feel when people you love go away?

“One day,” Grandpa began, “Jesus was talking to His disciples.

‘Soon I will go away,’ He said to them.

‘No, no, please don’t go away,’ they replied.

‘I must, I have important things to do.’

‘What are you going to do?’ they asked him.

‘I am going away to prepare a place for you. In my Father’s house there are many rooms, and I am going to prepare them for you.’

“Actually, Jesus loved kids most of all.
He said so.

They are very special to Him.”

“Really? So, what do you think my room will look like?”

“Very, very special because Jesus loves you very, very much.”

“The end.”

“The End?” said Taylor, “then what happened?”

“Well, Jesus did what He said.

He went to heaven to prepare a place for everyone.”

“You mean for his disciples.”

“No, for everyone.”

“But not me, I’m just a kid.”
