

Foundations Curriculum

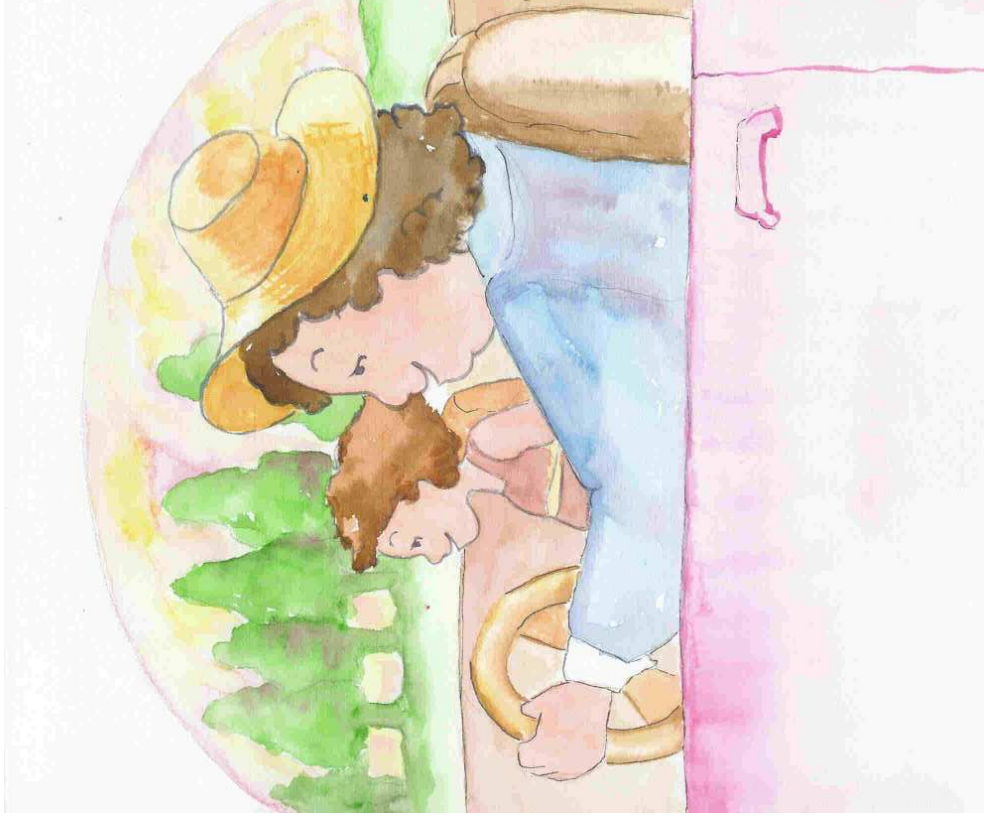

Copyright Kathlyn Mickel 2005

Created and Written by Kathlyn Mickel

Illustrated by Jean Evanson

Contact: info@kidsfaith.org

www.kidsfaith.org

Ella Shares a Secret

Parent/child weekly study

Who did Elisha tell her secret to?

What did her grandmother say about her secret?

What does our Bible verse tell us about Jesus?

Who in our life can we tell about Jesus?

Let's practice telling others about Jesus?

Verse for Tell Others
About Jesus

Go into all the world and teach the Good News.

Mark 16:15

“Grandma, grandma I have a secret!”
shouted Ella after Sunday School.

“You do? Can I hear it?” replied her Grandma while shaking the pastor’s hand at church and smiling.

“Not yet, it’s a secret,” said Ella waving goodbye to her friend Rebecca.

“Can I hear it now?” asked Grandma while she was tucking Ella into bed that night.

“Yes, yes! I will tell you now!”

exclaimed Ella with excitement.

“Today at Sunday school,” Ella began, “we learned about Jesus. We learned that he was the Son of God and he loves us.”

Grandma smiled. “That’s true, but it isn’t really a secret.”

“Really?” said Ella.

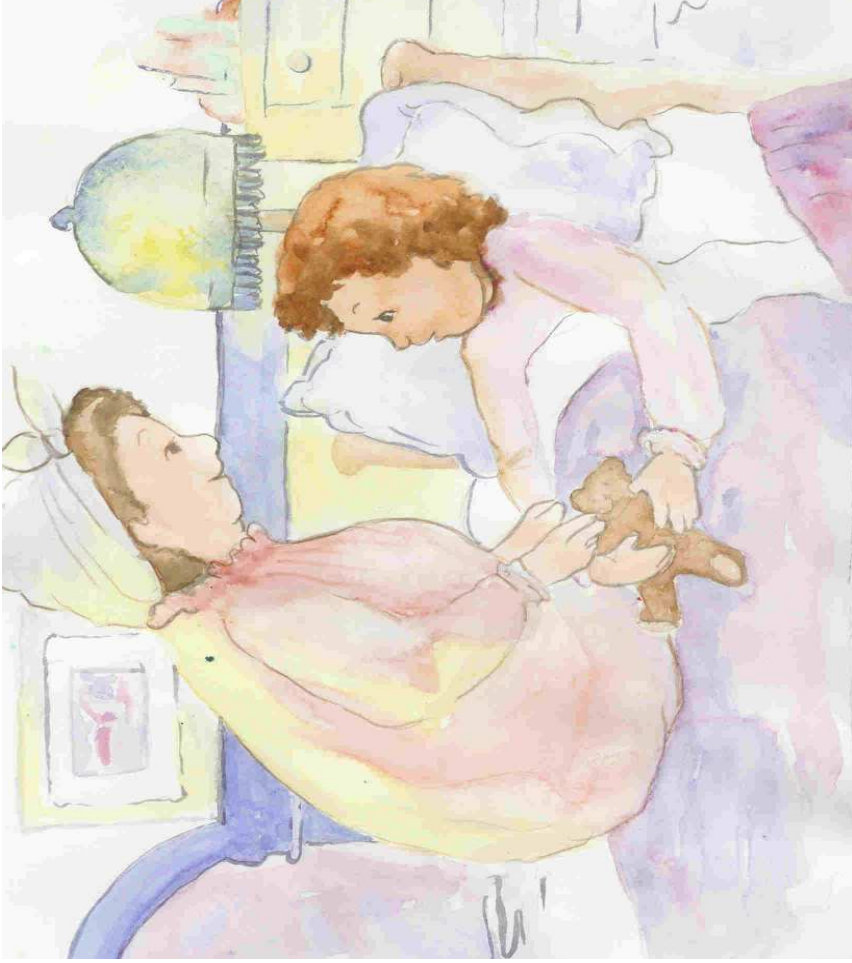

“Yes, in the Bible it says, ‘Go into all the world and teach the Good News.’ That means that we are supposed to tell people that Jesus loves them.”

“It’s not a secret!” exclaimed Ella.

“That right, it’s not a secret that Jesus loves everyone including you!” said

Grandma with a smile.

“Can I hear it now?” asked Grandma in the car on the way home.

“Nope, it’s a secret,” replied Ella while looking at the passing trees.

“Can I hear it now?” asked Grandma after feeding their cat Sam.

“Not yet, it’s a secret,” replied Ella stroking Sam’s arched back.

“Can I hear it now?” asked Grandma as she was making lunch.

“No, it’s a secret,” replied Ella while she helped wash the carrots.

“Can I hear it now?” asked Grandma later when she was sipping lemonade in the garden.

“Nope, it’s a secret,” said Ella as she played tea with her dolls.

