

Early Foundations Curriculum

Copyright Foundations Publishing 2006

Illustrated by Noel Tuazon

Contact: info@kidsfaith.org

www.kidsfaith.org

Tim and Tony

Verse for Tell Others About Jesus

Go into all the world and teach the Good News.

Mark 16:15

Parent/child Weekly Study

What did Tim tell Tony about Jesus?

What does Jesus and the Bible verse tell us to do?

What is the 'Good News' that Tim was talking about?

How can you tell others about Jesus?

Tim and Tony were great friends. Everyday after school, they would play in the sandbox. Tim would bring his cars; Tony would bring his planes. Crash! Bang!

Boom! went the cars and planes together as they played.

“He does?” said Tony reaching for a truck.

“Yes! He loves you so much that he died for your sins and if you just believe in him you can go to heaven someday and be with him.”

“Really? Wow, that’s terrific. I’ve never heard about Jesus before. You learned that at church? Thanks for telling me.”

Said Tony with a smile.

Crash! Bang! Boom! Went the cars and planes all afternoon long.

“Here Tony, you can play with my special tractor today,” said Tim one Monday.

“Thanks! You can play with my jet,” said Tony.

The boys smiled. Crash! Bang! Boom! went the cars and planes.

They were having a splendid time.

“Well, I was remembering church yesterday,” began Tim.

Tony stopped playing with his tank and looked up.

“We learned some good news yesterday and I want to tell you about it.”

“Really? What is it?” asked Tony.

“It’s about Jesus; he loves us all and wants us to be in heaven with him someday. He loves you too!”

Then Tim stopped. "What's the matter?" asked Tony.

"Oh, nothing," said Tim, "I was just thinking about something," he said while he built a mountain out of sand.

"What were you thinking about?" asked Tony as he buried one of his tanks.

Tim was nervous. He knew that he was supposed to tell his friends about Jesus, and Tony was his friend, but he didn't know what Tony would think because Tony didn't go to church. But then he remembered the Bible verse he learned:

“Go into all the world and teach the Good News.”

“That's it!” thought Tim.