

Verse for The Church

For where two or three come together in my name, there I am with you.

Matthew 18:20

Parent/child weekly study

Peter traveled from city to city telling others about Jesus. Who do we know that we can tell about Jesus?

This is how the early churches began. What is our church like today?

Who do we learn about at church?

What did Peter and his friends do together?

Foundations Curriculum

Copyright Foundations Publishing, LLC 2006

Created and Written by Kathryn Mickel

Illustrated by Noel Tuazon

Contact: info@kidsfaith.org www.kidsfaith.org

The Early Church

This is how the first churches began.

Today we have big and small churches that tell us about Jesus, but in the beginning, the churches were very little and people like Peter helped spread the news all over the world.

Peter was having a very busy day.

He was meeting with some new friends to tell them about Jesus.

That made Peter very happy, but it was time for him to go to the next town.

He had many more people to tell about Jesus.

Peter traveled for miles and miles meeting with people and telling them about Jesus.

Peter liked telling people about Jesus because he loved Jesus so much.

Even though Jesus was now in heaven, Peter knew that it was very important that he tell as many people as possible that Jesus loves them.

Finally, he told them how much Jesus loves them and wants to be with them in heaven someday.

Then they prayed together.

His new friends were so happy to hear all of this news about Jesus that they decided they wanted to believe in Jesus too.

They accepted Jesus as their savior.

When his new friends arrived at the house where Peter was staying, they all sat down together.

They ate some food and talked and talked.

Peter told them all about the marvelous things Jesus had done.

He told them about the miracles and how much Jesus taught them.

He even told them about Jesus dying on the cross then rising again to be with them.